Information Note

I have finished my thesis proposal at Zhejiang University in October, 2018. Two years are left for my Ph.D learning up to now. The title of my thesis is "Analysis of Effective Elastic Thickness in China and Pacific Ocean". Now I have finished the work about Chinese part, and move on to the Pacific Ocean.

Personal Evaluation

I am a lively, cheerful and passionate girl. When it comes to study, I am hardworking and grasp the basic knowledge, have strong summary skills. As for character, I am warm-hearted and optimistic, I'm glad to offer help to others. For work, as a monitor and a leader of some projects, I concluded a lot of work experience, with a strong sense of responsibility, and the ability of unity and cooperation. I like travelling, swimming, hiking and challenging the life.
